

British Values

New Directions College actively promote the five British Values. These are democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs and for those without faith. These are the 5 fundamental values that have been adopted by the UK Government in an attempt to create social unity and prevent extremism.

Democracy

- We learn about the importance of freedom of speech
- We explore the right to vote
- We encourage learner voice and ask for regular feedback

Individual Liberty

- We take personal responsibility for our own actions
- We learn about identities and explore personal beliefs
- The College promotes an anti-bullying culture
- The College provides opportunities to develop self-esteem and confidence through learning
- The College promotes respect as a core value.

The rule of Law

- We have a learning charter which sets out our code of conduct and expectations
- We work closely with our community Police Officers
- We will explore different laws, authority and the importance of living in a democratic society
- We learn about fairness and justice

Respect and Tolerance

- We will always challenge prejudice or discriminatory behaviour
- We understand and respect that we don't all share the same beliefs and values
- We discuss and appreciate the differences between people, different faiths, ethnicity, gender, sexuality and disabilities.
